NO APPEAL IN MAHUKA CASE IS PLANNED SUGAR DEFENSE "COLOSSAL MISTAKE"

Murder & Suicide On Big Bark

Bringing the story of the cold-blooded and premeditated murder of Oscar Nelson, an able seaman, and the dramatic suicide of William K. Swan, a Chinese-Chinese cook, while rounding Cape Horn, the American bark Footing Sney, Captain J. E. Willetts, master, one hundred and twenty-six days from New York, is an arrival at the port of Honolulu and new lies at the Channel wharf, where her large shipment of iron and hardware consigned to T. H. Davies & Co. will be discharged.

The Footing Sney, a well-known bark, plying between the East coast of the United States and the Hawaiian Islands, sailed from New York on November 18th, taking practically an entire new crew of mates and men numbering eighteen souls.

Nothing marred the even tenor of the voyage until the staunch bark stood off the river Platte, when a gale reaching the velocity of a hurricane was encountered. For several days the vessel, deeply laden, labored in the angry seas. The fierce tempest succeeded in tearing several sails from the spars but saved this loss the Footing Sney soon rode out the worst of the storm and approached the southernmost point of South America.

Cook Fired Three Shots.

Firing three shots from a .36-caliber revolver with deadly effect, Swan, the Asiatic cook, sent Sailer Oscar Nelson to his death on the evening of February 2nd. The unfortunate man was buried with usual honors by Captain Willetts.

The cook had been signed on before leaving New York and until the time of the shooting the man is declared to have given little or no trouble to the crew or men.

From stories told on board the Footing Sney this morning, it is claimed that Nelson had for some days before his untimely death, badgered and annoyed the cook by frequently visiting the galley and making complaint concerning the quality of the food or a lack of hot water for washing purposes. It is further stated that Nelson finally told the man that he intended to throw him overboard unless a decided change was made in the management of his department.

Captain Willetts says that he was approached by the cook and informed of several threats made against that servant. The skipper went forward.

It was learned this morning on the best of authority that neither the Federal government nor the private interests affected by the first Mahuka case decision last Saturday night now intend to take an appeal, and one of the attorneys this morning confirmed this report by saying:

"The most surprising thing about the Mahuka site verdict is the story in the morning paper that it was dis-pleasing and that it came as a surprise."

The exceptions to the verdict, it is stated, were noted by the attorneys as a formality, not with intention of perfecting an appeal, and today information.

PHILADELPHIA COMPANY LUCKY; FINE STONE QUARRY IS STRUCK

Fortune has smiled upon the Breakwater Company of Philadelphia in its plans for the Federal construction work on the Hilo breakwater. According to news from the Big Island, engineers for the company have struck a fine stone quarry only a short distance from the spot where the Lord-Young Engineering Company picked a lemon that is estimated to have cost it forty or fifty thousand dollars.

The quarries are at Waikeke. The Lord-Young company got into a quarry where the stone "mashed" and 50 per cent. of it proved useless. The failure of the quarry put the company into a hole, literally and financially speaking, on the Hilo breakwater job.

When the Philadelphia concern un-

CRUISER MARYLA ND IS NOT COMING

The crepe on Cupid's bow, and turn the picture of Hymen toward the wall. For the cruiser Maryland will not return to Honolulu—not for some time, at any rate—and the budding romances that were about to bloom when the Navy Department so inconspicuously sent the ship off to Guayaquil are again nipped by the frost of separation.

Rumor has it that two dashing junior officers of the Maryland laid siege to the hearts of two fascinating Honolulu maidens, and that had it not

PAUL SUPER IS OPTIMISTIC FOR BIG CAMPAIGN

That the work done by the Christian Extension Movement has been successful and that it will be more so during the present week is the opinion of Paul Super, executive secretary of the movement.

"In planning the campaign," he said this morning, "it was our idea that it would take a week for the thing to get started. The increasing interest throughout this week and the attendance and large and imposing meeting in the Bijou theater last night with an attendance of 1500 all point to success."

"We feel that the attendance will increase this week and that results which are already coming in are going to multiply. A good number of signed cards have already been turned in and we have not the slightest doubt but that there will be many more this week.

"Every religious campaign passes through a more or less critical stage. We are confident that the stage has now been passed in this campaign and that the meetings will grow in favor and in power and that by next Sunday, when we shall meet again in the Bijou theater, the most effective and impressive religious campaign Honolulu has known in a generation will have reached its climax."

MCCANDLESS FOR PRIMARY TO DECIDE THE NOMINEE

"I'd like to get a primary up between myself and Col. McCarthy, and I feel confident that if we carried out this plan among the Democrats, I'd win out."

So declared L. L. McCandless this morning.

"The matter of a primary was talked over before the Territorial Central Committee decided upon the convention plan," he continued. "If I had known at that time that McCarthy would run against me, I should have been very glad to have tested the sentiment of Democratic voters by allowing them to decide between us direct."

According to a report from Washington, Delegate Kuhio has indicated E. R. Stackable for reappointment as Collector of Customs here, and it is believed Stackable is sure of the position.

FERN TO QUIT MCCARTHY CLUB IS POLITICAL RUMOR

That Mayor Fern is ready to resign from the McCarthy Club and that he will henceforth keep out of the scrap between L. L. McCandless and Colonel McCarthy was the report this morning, which could not be confirmed by the Bulletin before the paper went to press. It was stated that this morning the mayor informed a Democratic politician that he would quit the McCarthy club and his support would not be given McCarthy.

At several recent precinct meetings McCandless people have attacked the mayor for his partisan stand, and it is said that the mayor feels his own candidacy for reelection will be endangered if he alienates the entire McCandless element.

KUHIO SPEAKS AALA TONIGHT

Delegate Kuhio will address a mass meeting at Aala Park this evening and a good-sized turn-out is expected, unless the weather should turn to a downpour, which seems improbable.

The Delegate's address to the people is expected to deal principally with the situation at Washington and the status of legislation in which the Territory is vitally interested.

Forty or fifty of the Delegate's Hawaiian friends assembled at his home last evening and spent some three hours in discussing the general political conditions with special reference to affairs in Washington and Hawaii's duty in connection with the fight that is being made against the tariff on sugar. The general sentiment of the speakers was that if the "Kih-Kuhio" campaign were continued, the Delegate might just as well stay here and fight it out as to go on to Washington and let his enemies kill him off. On the other hand, if all elements got together in work for the general welfare of Hawaii and cut out personalities, the Delegate, under those conditions, was urged to return to Washington. Delegate Kuhio did not state his conclusion but expressed his appreciation of the plain discussion and sincere suggestions indulged in.

FILIPINOS HERE TO LOOK INTO LABOR CONDITIONS

Two Filipino investigators are now in Hawaii looking into labor conditions, particularly with reference to their own countrymen, and will shortly return to the southern island and make an exhaustive report. One of them is sent by the Insular government itself, the other by a group of citizens.

Sr. Joaquin Balmori, representing Pangasinan in the Philippines assembly, arrived on the Mongolia last Saturday. He comes under authority of a bill passed at the last session of the Legislature, and his report will be made to the government.

The other investigator is Jose Valenzuela, who comes from Bacarra, Ilocos Norte. He is sent by some three or four hundred people of Bacarra, and is to advise his countrymen whether or not to come to the islands to work on the sugar plantations. He is now on Maui.

These visits of investigation are the outcome of considerable stirring up of the question in the Philippines. The fact that Hawaiian plantations stand ready to give the Filipinos far more money as wages than they can possibly make at home, together with the failure of the rice crop in many parts of the islands, has determined many laborers to come to Hawaii.

At the last session of the Philippine Legislature a bill was passed providing for a representative of the government to visit Hawaii and study conditions at first-hand. The young Filipino, Valenzuela, who has been sent here is not the government investigator. He represents the people of the Bacarra section. According to the Philippines Free Press, Mr. E. Womack, agent of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, asked the people of this section to pick out one of their own number in whom they had confidence, and the representative thus selected would be sent to Hawaii at the expense of the association to make the

THIS RUSSIAN NOT DETAINED BY INSPECTORS

Although some twenty-three Russian immigrants from Manchuria are now held at the Federal immigration station here as brought by the Territory in violation of the contract labor law, one of the party who missed the boat and came later than the others did not fall under official displeasure. He got into Hawaii without any trouble.

The Russians who are detained came on the Manchuria party and had missed the boat. However, he seemed to have no difficulty in satisfying the Federal inspectors that he was not breaking any contract labor law by entering the Territory, for he was in the Territory by Saturday night. The woman and the child were also allowed to enter.

Not even the members of the Territorial Board of Immigration are fully informed as to the exact nature of the violation of the law supposed to have been committed. It is believed that some of the Russians told the inspectors that they were promised work here.

Under the board's terms with the booking agents, the International Im-

FREAR FOR HILO ON FLYING TRIP

Governor Frear will go to Hilo tomorrow, where, with Surveyor Wall, he will look into matters connected with the Waikeke tract that covers the ground to be laid out for Greater Hilo.

There are a number of matters connected with the laying out of the lands which will have to be looked into closely. The plan has been drawn in a tentative way and the details will be gone into. During the time he is down there the Governor will give the Hilo people a chance to express their views as to the proposed plans.

"I will confine my attentions mainly to the residence lots above the town," stated the Governor this morning. "Other people have been fully into the other matters and the details of these have been worked out. I have taken a special interest in the residence lots and have always contended that part of the scheme should not be worked out without the other."

"I am taking only Surveyor Wall with me and expect to be back again on Saturday, so that it will be a flying trip. During my absence, Secretary Mott-Smith will hold the lid down."

migration and Colonization Company, the agents will have to pay the expenses of such immigrants as are turned back. The board pays only for those allowed to enter. It is expected that the appeal taken to Washington, the incoming numbers of Russians will be rather scanty.

The roll-books will then be closed and remained closed until 6 p. m. of the following day, April 6.

Explosion At Drydock

* Soon after work on the Pearl Harbor drydock started this morning, an explosion of the air compression tank in the contractors' power-house partially shattered the building and demolished a portion of the machinery. By a fortunate chance no employees were within the danger zone at the time, and no one was hurt in any way.

* The exact cause of the explosion has not been ascertained as yet, nor has the damage been estimated in dollars and cents.

* It is believed, however, that the accident will not cause any appreciable delay on the drydock work, and that outside of the loss to the contractors of machinery, no serious consequences will result.
